

Coordinated Articles of Association of X-FAB Silicon Foundries SE

Title I. – Legal form, name, registered office, purpose, duration

Article 1 Legal form

The company is a Societas Europaea ("Europese vennootschap" / "société européenne") governed by the Council Regulation (EC) No 2157/2001 of 8 October 2001 on the Statute for a European company (SE) as may be amended from time to time (the "SE Regulation").

It is a listed company within the meaning of article 1:11 of the Belgian Companies and Associations Code.

Article 2 Name

The company carries the name "X-FAB Silicon Foundries". The name of the company shall be preceded or followed by the abbreviation SE.

Article 3 Registered office

The registered office of the company is situated in the Flemish Region. It may be transferred to any other place in Belgium by resolution of the board of directors, except if such transfer involves a change of the language of these articles of association pursuant to the applicable language regulations. In such case, the transfer of the registered office must be decided by an extraordinary shareholders' meeting. A transfer of the registered office to any other place in the European Union, outside of Belgium, must also be decided by an extraordinary shareholders' meeting.

The company may, by resolution of the board of directors, establish one or more administrative offices, operational seats, branches, representations or agencies in Belgium or abroad.

Article 4 Corporate purpose

The purpose of the company is, individually or by participation, all activities and operations typical for an investment and holding company in the semiconductor branch, in particular but not limited to:

- (a) the investment, subscription, participation, investment, sale, purchase and trading in shares, securities, bonds, certificates, claims, money and other investment instruments issued by national or foreign (commercial) enterprises, administrative offices, institutions or associations;
- (b) the management of the investments and participations in subsidiaries, the granting of advice, management and other services that are in line with the activities of a holding company;
- (c) the granting of any loans and advances whatsoever for any period of time to all affiliated companies or companies in which it participates and to guarantee its commitments and all commitments of these companies by standing bail, providing security or otherwise.

This list does not apply to regulated activities for which the company does not have any license.

In general the company can perform all financial, movable or immovable acts that relate to its purpose directly or indirectly or that might further facilitate the realization thereof.

Article 5 Duration

The company is incorporated for an unlimited duration.

Title II. – Capital, shares and bonds

Article 6 Capital

The capital of the company amounts to EUR 657,456,850.68. It is represented by 130,781,669 shares, without nominal value, with voting right, each representing 1/130,781,669th of the capital.

Article 7 Authorized capital

§1. The board of directors may increase the registered capital of the Company in one or several times by a (cumulated) amount of maximum EUR 657,456,850.68.

This authorization may be renewed in accordance with the relevant legal provisions. The board of directors can exercise this power for a period of five (5) years as from the date of publication in the Annexes to the Belgian State Gazette of the amendment to these articles of association approved by the shareholders' meeting on April 30, 2026.

§2. Any capital increases which can be decided pursuant to this authorization will take place in accordance with the modalities to be determined by the board of directors and may be effected (i) by means of a contribution in cash or in kind, (ii) through conversion of reserves, whether available or unavailable for distribution, and issuance premiums, with or without issuance of new shares. The board of directors can also use this authorization for the issuance of convertible bonds, subscription rights or bonds to which subscription rights are connected.

When exercising its authorization within the framework of the authorized capital, the board of directors can limit or cancel the preferential subscription right of the shareholders in the interest of the Company, subject to the limitations and in accordance with the conditions provided for by the Companies and Associations Code. This limitation or cancellation can also occur to the benefit of the members of the personnel within the meaning of Article 1:27 of the Companies and Associations Code or to the benefit of one or more specific persons even if these are not members of the personnel.

§3. If, pursuant to a capital increase that has been decided within the framework of the authorized capital, an issuance premium is paid, this shall be booked on the account "Issuance Premiums", that shall serve as guarantee for third parties in the same manner as the Company's registered capital and of which, apart from the possibility to convert this reserve into registered capital, can only be disposed in accordance with the conditions provided for by the Companies and Associations Code in respect of amendments to the articles of association.

§4. The board of directors is hereby expressly empowered to proceed with a capital increase in any and all form, including but not limited to a capital increase accompanied by the restriction or withdrawal of the preferential subscription right, even after receipt by the Company of a notification by the Financial Services and Markets Authority (FSMA – "Autorité des Services et Marchés Financiers" / "Autoriteit voor Financiële Diensten en Markten") of a takeover bid for the Company's shares. Where this is the case, however, the capital increase must comply with the additional terms and conditions laid down in Article 5 of the Council Regulation (EC) no 2157/2001 of 8 October 2001 on the Statute for a European company juncto Article 7:202 of the Companies and Associations Code. The powers hereby conferred on the board of directors remain in effect for a period of three years from the date of the amendment to these articles of association approved by shareholders' meeting held on April 30, 2026. These powers may be renewed for a further period of three years by resolution of the shareholders' meeting, deliberating and deciding in accordance with applicable rules. If the board of directors decides upon an increase of authorized capital pursuant to this authorization, this increase will be deducted from the remaining part of the authorized capital specified in the first paragraph.

§5. The board of directors is authorized, with power of substitution, to amend the articles of association after each capital increase realized within the framework of the authorized capital, in order to bring them in line with the new situation of the registered capital and the shares.

Article 8 Preferential subscription right

§1. In case of an increase of capital, the shares to be issued in return for a contribution in cash will first be offered to the company's existing shareholders in proportion to the share of the capital represented by their shares.

§2. The shareholders' meeting acting in accordance with Article 5 of the SE Regulation juncto Articles 7:191 and 7:193 of the Companies and Associations Code may, in the company's interest, limit or cancel the preferential subscription right. In case of a capital increase pursuant to the authorized capital, the board of directors may likewise limit or cancel the preferential subscription right as referred to and in accordance with the authorization in Article 7.

Article 9 Nature and register of securities

Shares not fully paid-up are in registered form.

Fully paid-up shares and other securities are in registered or dematerialized form.

A register of registered securities (which may be held in electronic form) is kept at the company's registered office. This register is available for perusal for each registered security holder.

A dematerialized security is represented by an entry on a personal account of the owner or holder, with a recognized account holder or clearing and settlement institution.

Holders of shares may elect to have, at any time, their registered shares converted into dematerialized shares, and vice versa, at their own expense.

Article 10 Disclosure of significant shareholdings

As regards the application of Title II of the Law of 2 May 2007 on the disclosure of significant shareholdings in issuers whose shares are admitted to trading on a regulated market and other provisions and the Royal Decree of 14 February 2008 on the disclosure of significant shareholdings, the applicable successive thresholds are established at 5%, 10% and any subsequent multiple of 5%.

Article 11 Indivisibility of shares

In the event shares are held by more than one owner, are pledged, or if the rights attaching to the shares are subject to joint ownership, usufruct or any other kind of split up of such rights, the board of directors may suspend the exercise of the rights attached to such shares until one person has been appointed as the sole representative of the relevant shares vis-à-vis the company.

Article 12 Convertible bonds and subscription rights

The company may issue convertible bonds or subscription rights whether or not attached to bonds, either pursuant to a resolution of the shareholders' meeting in accordance with the requirements for amendments to the articles of association, or pursuant to a resolution of the board of directors within the scope of the authorized capital.

The holders of bonds or subscription rights have the right to attend the shareholders' meeting but only in a consultative capacity.

Article 13 Acquisition of own shares

"§1. The Company may in accordance with Article 5 of the SE Regulation juncto Articles 7:215 ff. of the Companies and Associations Code and within the limits set out in these provisions, acquire, on or outside the stock market, up to 20% of its own shares, profit-sharing certificates or associated certificates for a price which will respect the legal requirements, but which will in any case not be more than 10% below the lowest closing price in the last thirty trading days preceding the transaction and not more than 5% above the highest closing price in the last thirty trading days preceding the transaction. This authorization is valid for five years from April 30, 2026. This authorization covers the acquisition on or outside the stock market by a direct subsidiary within the meaning and the limits set out by Article 7:221, indent 1 of the Companies and Associations Code. If the acquisition is made by the Company outside the stock market, even from a subsidiary, the Company shall comply with Article 7:215, §1, 4° of the Companies and Associations Code.

§2. By resolution of the shareholders' meeting held on April 30, 2026, the board of directors is authorized, subject to compliance with the provisions of the Companies and Associations Code, to acquire for the Company's account the Company's own shares, profit-sharing certificates or associated certificates if such acquisition is necessary to avoid serious and imminent harm to the Company. Such authorization is valid for three years as from the date of publication of the authorization in the Annexes to the Belgian State Gazette.

§3. By resolution of the shareholders' meeting held on April 30, 2026, the board of directors is authorized to divest itself of part of or all the Company's shares, profit-sharing certificates or associated certificates at any time and at a price it determines, on or outside the stock market or in the framework of its remuneration policy to personnel within the meaning of article 1:27 of the Belgian Companies and Associations Code or to prevent any serious and imminent harm to the Company. The authorization covers the divestment of the Company's shares, profit-sharing certificates or associated certificates by a direct subsidiary within the meaning of Article 7:221, indent 1 of the Companies and Associations Code. The authorization is valid without any time restriction, except when the divestment is to prevent any serious and imminent harm in which case the authorization is valid for three years as from the date of publication of the authorization in the Annexes to the Belgian State Gazette.

Article 14 Certification of the shares

The shares or other securities issued by the company may be certified in accordance with the provisions of Article 5 of the SE Regulation juncto Article 7:61 of the Companies and Associations Code.

The decision of the company to cooperate with the certification will be taken by the board of directors on the written request of the future issuer of the certificates. The board may resolve that the company will pay all or part of the charges of such certification and of the setting up and operating charges of the issuer of certificates, insofar as such payment is in the interests of the company.

A certificate holder or issuer or any third party of any kind may only invoke the assistance of the company in their issuing if the company has confirmed this assistance in writing to the issuer. The holders of such certificates may only exercise rights towards the company that are granted to them by law if the evidence of ownership of the registered or dematerialized certificates have previously been approved in writing by the company.

An issuer of certificates, whether or not issued with the assistance of the company, intending to participate in a shareholders' meeting and exercise the voting rights linked to the certified securities shall comply with the particular notice formalities described in Article 33.

A holder of certificates issued with the assistance of the company, intending, as authorized by the law, to attend a shareholders' meeting in a consultative capacity shall comply with the particular notice formalities described in Article 33.

Title III. – Management, Representation, Audit

Chapter 1. – Board of directors

Article 15 Composition

The company is managed by a board of directors that shall consist of minimum five directors, who may be natural persons or legal entities.

When a legal entity is appointed director, it must specifically appoint an individual as its permanent representative, to carry out the office of director in the name and on behalf of the legal entity. The legal entity may not revoke its permanent representative without simultaneously appointing a successor. The appointment and termination of the office of the permanent representative are governed by the same disclosure rules as if he/she were exercising the office on his/her own behalf.

Article 16 Appointment and dismissal of directors

The shareholders' meeting appoints the directors. The directors are dismissible by the shareholders' meeting at any time.

The term of office shall be six years maximum. The directors shall be eligible for re-election. The term of office of a retiring director who has not been re-elected shall terminate immediately after the closing of the annual shareholders' meeting.

Article 17 Chairman of the board of directors

The board of directors appoints its chairman amongst the non-executive directors.

Article 18 Vacancy of a director's mandate

Should any of the mandates of director become vacant, the remaining directors shall have the right, in accordance with Article 9 of the SE Regulation juncto Article 7:88 of the Companies and Associations Code, to temporarily fill such vacancy until the next shareholders' meeting which shall confirm such appointment.

Article 19 Powers of the board of directors

§1. The board of directors is vested with the power to perform all acts that are necessary or useful for the realization of the company's purpose, except for those which the law or these articles of association reserve to another corporate body.

§2. The board of directors may delegate special and limited powers to the chief executive officer and other members of senior management. The board of directors can allow the sub-delegation of said powers.

§3. The board of directors must set up an audit committee (in accordance with Article 7:99 of the Companies and Associations Code) and a remuneration and nomination committee (in accordance with Article 7:100 of the Companies and Associations Code). The rules governing the composition, tasks and method of functioning of such committees are laid down in the corporate governance charter of the company. The board of directors may, in preparation of its deliberations and resolutions, set up other committees of which it determines the number, the composition and the powers in accordance with these articles of association.

Article 20 Meetings

§1. The board of directors is convened by the chairman or the chief executive officer at least on a quarterly basis and whenever the interest of the company so requires or at the request of two directors.

The convening notice must be sent in writing, or by any other means of communication leaving a material trace, at the latest two business days prior to the meeting, except in case of emergency, which is to be justified in the convening notice or in the minutes of the meeting. Each director may waive convocation. A director who is present or represented at the meeting shall be deemed to have been properly notified or to have waived convocation.

The meetings are held at the day, hour and place mentioned in the convening notice.

§2. The board of directors is presided by the chairman. If the chairman is unable to attend the meeting, the board of directors is presided by the eldest of the directors present or another non-executive director.

Article 21 Corporate governance charter

The board of directors determines its working and other rules in a corporate governance charter. This charter especially contains rules with respect to the contents of the convening notices, the presence of directors at board meetings, the representation by proxy and the procedures to be followed in case of conflict of interests.

Article 22 Quorum

§1. The board of directors can only deliberate and decide validly if at least half of the directors is present or represented.

§2. The quorum requirement set forth in §1 above shall not apply:

1° to the vote on any matter at a subsequent meeting of the board to which such matter has been deferred for lack of quorum at a prior meeting, if said subsequent meeting is held within 30 days from such prior meeting and the notice of said subsequent meeting sets forth the proposed decision on such matter with reference to this Article 22, §2, 1°, provided that at least three directors are present; or

2° when an unforeseen emergency arises that makes it necessary for the board to take action that would otherwise become time-barred by law or in order to avoid imminent harm to the company.

§3. Directors may participate in the meetings of the board of directors using telephone or any similar means of communication which enables all persons participating in such meeting to hear each other in real time. Each person participating in a meeting in accordance with this §3, is deemed to be present at such meeting.

§4. Any director may grant a proxy in writing or by any means of communication leaving a material trace, to another director in order to represent him/her at a specific meeting and to vote on his behalf. However, no director may hold a proxy for more than one director. Representation by proxy is considered as presence for the determination of the quorum.

§5. If one or more directors have a direct or indirect interest of a patrimonial nature which conflicts with the interest of the company in a matter which falls within the competence of the board of directors, the directors concerned shall not participate in the deliberation or the vote in that respect and the remaining directors shall take a decision on the matter concerned, notwithstanding what is provided for in § 1 above

Article 23 Deliberation and voting

All decisions of the board of directors shall be adopted by a majority of the votes cast. In the case of a tie, the chairman of the meeting shall have the casting vote.

Article 24 Unanimous written resolutions

The board resolutions may be approved by unanimous written consent of all directors, whereby directors' signatures should be placed either on one single document or on more than one original of such document. These signatures may be electronic signatures within the meaning of Article 8.1, 3° of the New Civil Code.

Article 25 Minutes

The resolutions of the board of directors are recorded in minutes signed by the chairman and the secretary of the meeting and by those directors who wish to do so. These minutes are to be recorded or placed in a special minute book.

The copies or extracts destined for third parties are signed by the chairman of the board of directors, by the chief executive officer, by two directors or by the secretary.

Chapter 2. – Chief executive officer

Article 26 Appointment and removal

The board of directors appoints and removes the chief executive officer after having received the advice of the remuneration and nomination committee.

Article 27 Powers of the chief executive officer

Apart from the special and limited powers, assigned to him/her by the board of directors, the chief executive officer is vested with the day-to-day management of the company and the representation of the company in respect of such management.

The chief executive officer is also entrusted with the execution of the resolutions of the board of directors.

Within the limits of the powers granted to him/her by or pursuant to these articles of association, the chief executive officer may delegate special and limited powers to any person. He/she may allow sub-delegation of these powers. The chief executive officer informs the board of directors of the powers which are delegated by him/her pursuant to this paragraph.

Chapter 3. – Representation

Article 28 Representation

The company is represented in all its acts and at law by:

1° two directors acting jointly;

2° the chief executive officer alone, also in respect of matters outside the limits of the daily management; or

3° by every other person, acting within the limits of the mandate granted to him/her by the board of directors or the chief executive officer, as the case may be.

Chapter 4. – Remuneration

Article 29 Remuneration

The shareholders' meeting decides whether, and to which extent, a director's mandate is remunerated. Remuneration shall be imputed on the general expenses.

The company is authorized to deviate from all provisions of Article 7:91 of the Companies and Associations Code, in respect of any persons falling within the scope of such provisions.

Chapter 5. – Control

Article 30 Control of the financial situation

The financial position, annual accounts and compliance with the law and these articles or transactions required to be disclosed in the annual accounts shall be audited by one or more statutory auditors, who may be natural or legal persons, appointed by the shareholders' meeting.

The statutory auditor(s) shall hold office for renewable periods of three (3) years.

The appointment of retiring auditor(s) which have not been re-appointed shall terminate immediately after the closing of the annual shareholders' meeting.

The statutory auditor(s) shall be remunerated by a fixed fee determined by the shareholders' meeting at the beginning of his/her/its (their) mandate and which may be changed only by agreement between the parties.

Title IV. – Shareholders' meetings

Article 31 Day and place of meetings

Each year, the ordinary meeting of shareholders is held on the first Tuesday of the month May at 2pm, at the registered office or at any other place designated by the convening notice. If such day is a legal public holiday in Belgium, the meeting shall take place at the same hour on the following working day. The other shareholders' meetings shall be held on the day, at the hour and in the place designated by the convening notice. They may be held at locations other than the registered office.

Article 32 Convening notice

§1. The ordinary, special and extraordinary shareholders' meetings are convened by the board of directors or the auditor(s). The board of directors or the auditor(s) has to convene a shareholders' meeting at the request of shareholders representing 10% of the company's capital.

The convening notices are made in accordance with the Companies and Associations Code. The convening notices made by the board of directors may validly be signed in its name by the chief executive officer or any other person designated by the board of directors.

Every shareholder may waive its right to receive a convening notice. In any event, shareholders present or represented at the meeting and who do not formulate reservations as regards the validity of the convocation, are deemed to have received proper notice or to have waived their right to receive a convening notice.

§2. One or more shareholders that hold together at least 10% of the company's share capital may, in accordance with applicable provisions of the Companies and Associations Code, request for items to be added to the agenda and may submit resolution proposals with regard to existing agenda items or new items to be added to the agenda provided that they prove holding of such shareholding as at the date of their request by, as far as registered shares are concerned, a certificate evidencing the registration of the shares in the register of shares of the company or, as far as dematerialized shares are concerned, by a certificate issued by an authorized account holder or a clearing organization certifying the book-entry of the shares in one or several accounts held by such account holder or clearing organization.

Such right shall not be available in relation to a second extraordinary shareholders' meeting that is convened for lack of a quorum at the first extraordinary shareholders' meeting.

The new agenda items and/or resolution proposals must be sent to the board of directors in signed original paper form or electronically (in which case the form shall be signed by means of an electronic signature in accordance with applicable Belgian law), at the latest 48 hours after acknowledgment of the convocation by receipt of the registered letter or through the publication in the media. The company shall publish a revised agenda at the latest on the eighth calendar day preceding the date of the meeting.

The handling of such new agenda items and/or resolution proposals during the meeting is subject to the relevant shareholder(s) having satisfied, with respect to shares representing at least 10% of the capital, the conditions set forth in Article 33, (a), (1°) and (2°).

Article 33 Admission formalities

(a) Conditions of admission to shareholders' meeting

A shareholder wishing to attend and participate in the shareholders' meeting must:

1° have the ownership of its shares recorded in its name, as at midnight central European Time, on the fourteenth calendar day preceding the date of the meeting (the "record date") either through registration in the shareholders' register in the case of registered shares or through book-entry in the accounts of an authorized account holder or clearing institution in the case of dematerialized shares; and

2° notify the company (or the person designated by the company) via the e-mail address of the company or the e-mail address specifically mentioned in the convening notice of the shareholders' meeting, at the latest on the sixth calendar day preceding the day of the meeting, of its intention to participate in the meeting, indicating the number of shares in respect of which they intend to do so. In addition, the holders of dematerialized shares must, at the latest on the same day, provide the company (or the person designated by the company), or arrange for the company (or the person designated by the company) to be provided, with an original certificate issued by an authorized account holder or a clearing institution certifying the number of shares owned on the record date by the relevant shareholder and for which it has notified its intention to participate in the meeting.

An issuer of certificates relating to registered shares must notify its capacity of issuer to the company, which will record such capacity in the register of such shares. An issuer who refrains from notifying this capacity to the company can only vote at a shareholders' meeting if the written notification indicating its intention to participate in that shareholders' meeting specifies its capacity of issuer. An issuer of certificates linked to dematerialized shares must notify its capacity of issuer to the company before exercising any vote, at the latest through the written notification indicating its intention to participate in the shareholders' meeting, failing which such shares cannot participate in voting.

(b) Proxies and powers of attorney

Any shareholder with the right to vote may either personally participate in the meeting or give a proxy to another person, who need not be a shareholder, to represent it at the meeting. A shareholder may designate, for a given meeting, only one person as proxy holder, except in circumstances where Belgian law allows the designation of multiple proxy holders. The appointment of a proxy holder may take place in paper form or electronically (in which case the form shall be signed by means of an electronic signature in accordance with applicable Belgian law), through a form which shall be made available by the company. The signed original paper form or electronic form must be received by the company at the latest on the sixth calendar day preceding the date of the meeting. Any appointment of a proxy holder shall comply with relevant requirements of applicable Belgian law in terms of conflicting interests, record keeping and any other applicable requirement.

(c) Remote attendance

When such possibility is provided for in the convening notice and subject to the conditions and formalities included therein, shareholders that comply with the conditions set out in Article 33, (a) may participate to the shareholders' meeting by means of an electronic means of communication provided by the company. The convening notice shall include a description of the procedures relating to remote participation.

(d) Formalities for admission

Before being admitted to the meeting, the holders of securities or their proxy holders are required to sign an attendance sheet, indicating either their first name, last name and place of residence or their name and registered office, as well as the number of shares in respect of which they are participating in the meeting. Representatives of legal entities must provide documents evidencing their capacity as bodies or special proxy holders. The natural persons, shareholders, bodies or proxy holders who take part in the shareholders' meeting must be able to prove their identity.

(e) Other securities

The holders of profit-sharing certificates, non-voting shares, bonds, subscription rights or other securities issued by the company, as well as the holders of certificates issued with the cooperation of the company and representing securities issued by the latter, may participate in the shareholders' meeting insofar as the law or these articles of association entitles them to do so and, as the case may be, gives them the right to participate in voting. If they propose to participate, they are subject to the same formalities concerning admission and access, and forms and filing of proxies, as those imposed on the shareholders.

Article 34 Remote voting before the shareholders' meeting

The convening notice may allow shareholders to vote remotely before the shareholders' meeting, by sending a paper form or, if specifically allowed in the convening notice, by sending a form electronically (in which case the form shall be signed by means of an electronic signature in accordance with applicable Belgian law), through a form which shall be made available by the company. The original signed paper form must be received by the company at the latest on the sixth calendar day preceding the date of the meeting. Voting through the sending of the signed electronic form may occur until the calendar day before the date of the meeting.

The company may also organize a remote vote before the meeting through the corporate website. It shall specify the practical terms of any such remote vote in the convening notice.

The company will ensure that, when arranging remote electronic voting before the shareholders' meeting, either through the sending electronically of a form or through the corporate website, the company is able, through the system used, to control the identity and capacity as shareholder of each person casting a vote electronically.

Shareholders voting remotely must, in order for their vote to be taken into account for the calculation of the quorum and voting majority, comply with the conditions set out in Article 33, (a).

Article 35 Quorum

The meeting of shareholders can deliberate and vote validly if the quorum requirements as set forth in the Companies and Associations Code are met.

Article 36 Deliberation and resolutions

§1. Each share carries one vote.

§2. Except as otherwise required by the Companies Code, all resolutions of the shareholders' meeting including those relating to the amendment of the articles of association shall be adopted by a majority of the votes cast.

Article 37 Chairman

The shareholders' meeting is chaired by the chairman of the board of directors. If the chairman is unable to attend the meeting, the shareholders' meeting is presided by the eldest of the directors present or another non-executive director. The chairman appoints the secretary, who does not need to be a shareholder. The meeting appoints, if the number of participants so requires, one or more tellers from among the shareholders or their representatives. The chairman, the secretary and the tellers (if any) form the bureau. The chairman can appoint the bureau prior to the opening of the meeting, and the latter, thus constituted, can proceed to the verification of the powers of the participants prior to this opening.

Article 38 Minutes

The minutes of the shareholders' meeting are signed by the members of the bureau and by the shareholders who wish to do so. These minutes, drafted in accordance with the Companies and Associations Code, are recorded or kept in a special register.

The copies or extracts destined for third parties are signed by the chairman of the board of directors, by the chief executive officer, by two directors, or by the secretary.

Article 39 Adjournment

Irrespective of the items on the agenda, the board of directors may, during the annual shareholder's meeting, adjourn the decision with respect to the approval of the annual accounts or any other decision. It can only use this right after the opening of the meeting but before the vote in relation to the agenda item concerned. Its decision, which does not have to be justified, must be notified to the shareholders' meeting before the end of the meeting, and mentioned in the minutes. Save a decision by the shareholders' meeting to the contrary, such adjournment shall not cancel the other decisions taken during the meeting. The shareholders' meeting shall be held again within five weeks and with the same agenda. Shareholders wishing to participate in such meeting shall fulfil the admission conditions set out in Article 33. To this effect, a record date shall be set on the fourteenth calendar day at midnight Central European Time preceding the date of the second meeting.

Title V. – Financial year, annual accounts, distribution of profits

Article 40 Financial year and annual accounts

The financial year begins on the first of January and ends on the thirty-first of December each year.

At the end of each financial year, the board of directors draws up an inventory as well as the annual accounts and the annual report in accordance with the law.

The annual accounts, the annual report and the report of the auditor(s) are made available to the shareholders together with the convening notice of the shareholders' meeting.

Article 41 Allocation of profits

The ordinary shareholders' meeting decides on the approval of the annual accounts as well as on the allocation of the results. An amount of 5% of the net profits of the financial year shall be added to the legal reserve fund; this is no longer compulsory when the reserve fund amounts to 10% of the company's registered share capital.

On the proposal of the board of directors, the shareholders' meeting decides on the allocation of the net profits after deduction of the above mentioned 5%.

Article 42 Dividends

The annual dividends shall be paid at the dates and places decided by the board of directors.

The board of directors may decide to pay out an interim dividend to the extent allowed by the Companies and Associations Code.

Title VI. – Dissolution - Liquidation

Article 43 Dissolution

If the company is dissolved, it shall be wound up in the manner decided by the shareholders' meeting, which shall appoint the liquidators (unless not legally required). The shareholders' meeting shall have the widest powers to determine the powers of the liquidators, fix their emoluments and grant them discharge, even while the liquidation is still pending.

Article 44 Distribution

After all liabilities have been cleared, the balance of the assets owned by the company shall be divided among all the shares, in equal parts.

Title VII. – Miscellaneous provisions

Article 45 Address for service

Any shareholder, bondholder, director, statutory auditor or liquidator not residing in Belgium shall elect an official address in Belgium. Otherwise he/she shall be deemed to have elected the registered office of the company as his/her official address where all communications, notices, processes and documents may validly be sent to or served upon him/her.
